Silent Auction

You'll find some real treasures donated by the townsfolks and by people like you who want to support the good work of Charlemont Federated Church. Let us know if you've got something you would like to donate to the church's fund supporting those who need it most.

The Minister's Discretionary Fund helps people in need in our community. It is distributed at the discretion of our Minister (or a designee, currently Budge Litchfield) to community members who need urgent financial assistance for such items as heating oil, medical bills, car repair bills, and so on.

The Silent Auction at Holiday Village is one of the main sources for the Fund.

We would like to invite you to consider donating an item or service for this event. The event will be held mid-November, but you are welcome to donate in advance! Please contact one of the members* of the Missions and Outreach ministry if you have any questions, or would like to donate.

And mark your calendars for November 16th: please bring your friends and family and join us at for this very special holiday event!

*Missions and Outreach members: Budge Litchfield, Virginia Gabert, Gael Wakefield, Ned Wolf, Prue Berry, Suzy Zavotka, Fin Finley, Peter Purdy. Please make your donations by November 10th so that we may prepare a display and tell folks about these opportunities. Got a piece of unique furniture, jewelry, a service or food specialty that is perfect for the holidays and the year to come? Be in touch!
